

Growth In Giving Stewardship Workshop

Hosted by [name of your congregation here]

For Lutherans Seeking to Create a Culture of Generosity

Does your congregation struggle financially? Do concerns about finances dominate the discussion and distract from pursuing the ministry opportunities before you? Just imagine what could happen if all the members of your congregation gave generously!

Join us as Jeff Davis of Cornerstone Stewardship Ministry provides training for pastors and lay people on how to encourage faithfulness and generosity in Christian giving. Some of the topics covered are:

- ◆ The wider context of Christian stewardship
- ◆ Year-round stewardship encouragement
- ◆ Effective reporting and analysis
- ◆ Communicating the ministry vs. the budget
- ◆ Annual stewardship planning
- ◆ Teaching stewardship through many channels

Learn what other churches have done and experience a 5-20% increase in giving. The workshop is based on a variety of sources, experiences, best practices and studies, aligned with the goal of touching the heart of the disciple of Jesus. Best of all, it is based on God's Word. During the day Jeff will lead congregations attending in developing a specific implementation plan that will aid growth in stewardship.

Lunch and refreshments are included.
